RE: Izmirligil v. SPS, Inc, et al, Case No: 17-cv-6157 (PKC)(LB)

Dear Judge Chen:

I am the Plaintiff represented with Mr Karamvir Dahiya, Esq. in the above action, and I am respectfully informing your Honor that Mr. Dahiya is discharged for cause by me, as of May 15, 2019, for his failure to obey the April 4, 2019 Discovery Order of Magistrate Judge Bloom, in this action, in addition to his failure to comply with Attorney Retainer Agreement.

As your Honor may recognize that “A client has an absolute right, at any time, with or without cause, to terminate the attorney – client relationship by discharging the attorney” (Campagnola v. Mulholland, Mimion & Roe, 76 NY 2d 38, 43 [1990]), and “[A]n attorney who is discharged for cause ...is not entitled to compensation or lien” (Campagnola v. Mulholland, Mimion & Roe, 76 NY 2d at 44) where attorney Dahiya has been paid in full in advance for legal services in which he has not performed yet!

While I am currently communicating with another law firm to replace Dahiya – not just for the 2017 case, also my other 2018 case – to become attorney on the record(s) of both cases; However, at this juncture, it has become necessary to adjourn the May 21, 2019 conference call ordered by Hon. Bloom for the Discovery dispute that I have kindly requested Mr Dahiya to adjourn the same by contacting this Honorable Court, but somehow ignored, and accordingly, I am respectfully requesting a three(3) weeks adjournment, on or around June 11, 2019.

I will be informing your Honor whether I will be represented by another law firm or will proceed as pro se in both 2017 and 2018 cases, where I have drafted both of my cases, (e.g complaints, oppositions, MOL, etc) on or before June 11, 2019.

Thank you for your Honor's consideration of this matter.

CC:

.Karamvir Dahiya, Esq.
.Kenneth J. Flickinger, Esq.
.Frank Burt, Esq.
